

Aaron Kohn, Jr.

August 21, 1936 - July 3, 2024

Aaron Kohn, Jr., 87 of Graceville, Florida, passed away, Wednesday, July 3, 2024, at his residence.

Aaron was born August 21, 1936, in St. Petersburg, Fl. to Alfred Kohn, Sr. and Nettie May Capers Kohn. The Kohn family moved to Marianna in 1938. Aaron attended Marianna public schools from 1st grade through 12th grade. After graduation he joined the Navy, going around the world. Upon his release from the Navy, he attended the then Chipola Jr. College. Aaron was employed by Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. from 1966 for 33 years until his retirement in 1999. He held positions ranging from Store Credit Manager, District Credit Manager, National Credit Manager, Store Manager, and Store Owner.

Aaron was a member of the Sons of the American Revolution, Sons of Confederate Veterans, and was an Eagle Scout. He was a Life Member of the Elks, Past President of the Marianna Jaycees, member of the Daytona Beach Jaycees, a Rotarian and of the American Legion. He volunteered with Habit for Humanity and Chipola Ministries. Until his illness, Aaron was an active member of the FUMC Marianna. He liked all sports and was a fanatical University of Alabama football fan.

Aaron is survived by his wife of 65 years, Annie, son Chip Kohn and his partner Tim Barbaree, sister-in-law Helen Knoebel and numerous nieces and nephews.

A Celebration of His Life will be held 2 PM (CDT), Saturday, August 24, 2024, at the First United Methodist Church, Marianna, Florida under the direction of James & Lipford Funeral Home and James & Sikes Funeral Home, Maddox Chapel.

The visitation for family and friends will be 1 PM, Saturday until time of the service.

In Aaron's memory the family requests memorials be made to the Alzheimer' Association, or FUMC Marianna or the Boy Scouts of America.
