

Amy Elizabeth Seddon Miller

October 19, 1967 - September 14, 2021

Amy Elizabeth Seddon Miller, 53, went to be with her Heavenly Father September 14, 2021. Amy was a resident of Graceville, FL.

Amy attended Florida State University, where she obtained a bachelor's degree in education. As an educator, Amy was responsible for shaping the generations to come. She fulfilled her duties to the highest degree and personally invested in every student to step foot in her classroom. Amy took it upon herself to encourage, grow and believe in every child she encountered—no matter the circumstance. When Amy wasn't teaching, she could be found in the stands at local ball games supporting her sons, Austin and Eli, her family, and her students. Amy had a profound love of baking, and often shared her knowledge and experience with the younger generation. She was a true matriarch of the community, growing young men and women alike through a gentle touch and a kind word. To know Amy was to love her... and her 18-layer chocolate cake.

Amy was preceded in death by her father, George Seddon, mother, Bobbi Seddon, and brother, George Seddon Jr.

Amy is survived by her husband of 30 years, Terrell Miller, her two sons Austin and Eli Miller, her daughter-in-loves Kaycie and Railey Miller, her siblings Anita Rhoads (David Rhoads), Susan McIntosh (Matt McIntosh), sister-in-love

LaVonda Seddon, mother and father-in-law Helen and Jimmy Miller, as well as many other members of her extended family.
