“ Louise I want you to know that I loved you more than you ever knew. I ask God to please send the same angel for you that came for Mama and to be careful with you because you were special. My heart is shattered 💔 I lost my only sister now and how I wish I could turn back time. We had some good times together and many good laughs. God took another angel home on Jan 8 2024. You almost made it to your birthday. So you will be spending your birthday in heaven this year no doubt. Leroy and Carlton and all the rest of the family will get to celebrate this one with you. I love you sis and still can't believe this is true. Rest in peace now my sister until we meet again. I'm the only one left now but I will see you again soon. Love your sis Linda
