“ There is a deepness to my sorrow that has burned a mark into my soul. The conversations we had in the weeks before your passing, and the time we spent visiting last month, in Florida, will be some of the most precious memories in my life, and will always think back on them with a smile.

Time passed quickly, and too many words were left unspoken; but those things don't matter, and they can not be redone.

I'll forever remember you as the man who was always teaching something or giving of yourself, with a quiet expression of excitement and pure joy.

I will always miss you, and I will always hold our memories close to my heart.
