

Clayton "Clay" Hagan

November 30, 1963 - December 30, 2010

Clayton "Clay" Frank Hagan, 47 of Panama City Beach formerly of Graceville passed away Thursday, December 30, 2010, from injuries received in a motorcycle accident. Graveside service will be held 2:30 p.m., Monday, January 3, 2011, at Marvin Chapel Cemetery with Dr. Jerry Windsor and Rev. Tim Folds officiating, James & Lipford Funeral Home in Graceville directing. Family will receive friends at the First Baptist Church Fellowship Hall Monday 1 p.m. to 2 p.m. Clay was born in Graceville on November 30, 1963 to John Frank and Betty Grant Hagan. He was a 1981 graduate of Graceville High School and member of the First Baptist Church of Graceville. Clay worked as a social worker with the State of Florida Department of Children and Families. He was an avid Florida fan (Go Gators!), avid golfer and a friend to all. Preceded in death by his father and a sister Flossie Bedsole. He is survived by his beloved mother Betty Hagan, brother Charlie Bedsole and wife Julie of Tuscaloosa, AL, nieces and nephews Andrea and fiance' James, Leigh, Blake and Brett; special aunt and uncle Ellene and John Vance and several other aunts, uncles and cousins; special friend Caron Harris and her children Beth Lawrence, Barry Harris.