

Clyde Bailey

January 28, 1937 - January 10, 2011

Clyde Bailey, 73 of Graceville passed away Monday, January 10, 2011. Funeral services will be held 2 p.m., Thursday, January 13, 2011 at Corinth Baptist Church with Rev. Earl Hendrix officiating. Burial will follow in church cemetery with James & Lipford Funeral Home in Graceville directing. Family will receive friends at the funeral home Wednesday, 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. Mr. Clyde was born in Calhoun County, Florida on January 28, 1937 to the late Samuel Lee and Bessie Lee Lauramore Bailey. He was a member of Corinth Baptist Church where he served as deacon, Sunday School teacher and VBS director. Mr. Clyde, beloved by all, has worked with Piggly Wiggly for many years. He owned and operated Felters Seafood Restaurant for several years. Mr. Clyde will always be remembered for his way of winning a child's heart, giving them a piece of gum, holding them while their parent shopped and supporting not only his grandchildren in their extra curricular activities, but all the children in the community. Most of all, his passion was teaching and reaching out to young hearts about the love of Jesus. Preceded in death by his wife Syble, granddaughter Maggie Danielle Wilkins, two brothers Lloyd Bailey, Jimmy Earl Bailey. Survived by daughter and son-in-law, Kimberly and Danny Wilkins, granddaughters Emily Wilkins, Amy Wilkins all of Defuniak Springs, FL; four brothers and sisters-in-law Hayward and Charlotte Bailey of Slocomb, AL, James and Judy Bailey of Graceville, Bobby and Linda Bailey of Hartford, AL, Donnie and Faye Bailey of Slocomb, AL; sister-in-law Peggy Bailey of Columbus, GA; brother-in-law and sister-in-law Max and Corrine

Clark of Crestview, special friend Shirley Cassidy of Graceville; and a host nieces and nephews.