“ Danny is my first cousin and I was so very sorry to hear of his passing. My sincere sympathies to Debbie and his family. He was always there to make us laugh, sometimes at ourselves. He was always playing jokes on everyone. He will be missed by everyone who knew him. Much love from Dot Baggett Kornegay and family.

“ Debbie I am so sorry to hear that Danny has passed away. He was such an inspiration to my husband Terry Mayo who passed away February 25, 2019, due to complications with diabetes and being on dialysis. Danny always seemed to be upbeat and very encouraging about his illness. My heart mourns for you and your loss, I know the pain you will feel. Please keep God in your heart, for he will be your only friend during those long long nights

“ Danny was younger than his girl cousins and he was a thorn in the side. He and his brother would sneak up on the girls and listen to our girl talk and then jump out and yell ... to scare us. He was a pest that grew up .. into a wonderful Christian man, one who loved God , family and friends. He will be so missed but there is great rejoicing in Heaven.
