“ Danny and I worked together for many, many years. It was in the day when the Department cared for each other. He and I began about the same time and were friends as well as coworkers. He was just a wonderful person to everyone and loved by so many. I will keep your family in my prayers. He is in heaven with those who have gone before him and enjoying a good laugh and grinning from ear to ear

“ So sorry to hear of Danny’s passing. I knew him through the Florida National Guard, where Danny served honorably. Danny will be missed at the 144th Transportation Company’s Reunions where he served as Photographer and elsewhere as needed. A true Soldier and great Servant Leader to the end, and he will be rewarded in Heaven.

“ Carolyn and family....what a wonderful man you had in your life for so long. I remember you and Danny were voted "Most Dependable" in the senior favorites and I've always thought...how fitting....for you both. I know the next few weeks and months will be hard, know that he's in the arms of the lord no longer suffering. His legacy will be your beautiful children and grandchildren.
I don't know one person in Graceville, Florida that did not know him and did not LOVE him.
He'll be greatly missed forever and we'll have you all in our thought and prayers.
