Sister Pippin is preceded in death by her husband, Reverend R.E. Pippin, son Ronnel Pippin, and grandsons Wesley Pippin and Reed Pippin.

She is survived by daughter Mary Evelyn Pippin, daughter-in-law Penny Pippin, grandchildren Randy (Michelle) Powell, Evelyn (Pete) Sechler, Wanda (Eric) Eide, Ronnie (Cristina) Pippin, John (Jen) Zemlin, and Stephanie (Jay) Jowers. Sister Pippin and her family moved to Graceville in 1955, where her and her husband founded Graceville Community Church. She also founded Frith Hill Community Church, where she pastored for 15 years until the age of 85. Her greatest joy was sharing the love of Christ and praying for everyone she came in contact with.

The family especially wants to thank the caregivers at the Northwest Florida

“ I am so sorry to hear this. Sorrow for our loss not her victory. She and Brother Pippin were friends with my Mother's family long before I was born. I began to know her personally as a teenager and have loved her ever since. She and Brother Pippin were among the first Pastors to give me an opportunity to preach some 50() years ago. She always love the Lord, set a great example, and surely is rejoicing in heaven.

“ Nanie’s granddaughter, Wanda, introduced me to her in December 1988. Nanie immediately treated me with love, and has done so every moment since. Nanie spread the love of Christ every moment, and to everyone. Rest now beloved Nanie.

“ Such a blessing to know, so easy to love, and always ready to love others. I’ll always admire her and appreciate Nanny Pippin. I’m sure she’s enjoying gathering her crowns, as she lead so many to The Lord with her beautiful, gracious spirit.

“ Oh my, what a great woman of God. I remember as a young teenager, Sis. Pippin would come to West Bay Community Church to preach ladies monthly meeting service. I would stay out of school to attend the service, I always loved her preaching. When The Lord called me into the ministry, I would say, if I could preach like Sis. Piping then alright. Well I don't preach like her, but, I try to please the Lord and preach the word straight and truthful like she always did. Needless to say she was one of the wonderful preachers I fashioned myself after, as I follow Jesus.... I sure loved and appreciate her walk with Jesus. Heaven gained a great warrior....

“ I was blessed to be associated with Sister Pippin each Wednesday afternoon on the 3rd floor of the hospital. I went there to do an hour or so of music, 95% gospel with a bit of "memory" music thrown in at times. Sis. Pippin was always upbeat, loving, and she stole my heart. She was always complimentary, although my playing and singing was not of great quality. She would sing along on the old songs and worship the Lord. She always had a story to share, always interesting and encouraging. We would talk as I packed up my equipment and when I was through, she never failed to say, "Come here, let me pray for you." I never turned her down because I know her prayers were "up front" to the throne of God. I believe her prayers contributed to me over-coming cancer, as well as other sickness issues with my family. She was a light to all those on the 3rd floor, as well as all those who knew her. She will be missed. No one could ever take her place. From her stories I know she had great love for her family. Condolences to her family and to the many friends who were blessed to make her acquaintance. Looking forward to seeing her again!!!
