“ So sad to hear about Mr. Gerald. My heart breaks for you Mrs. Eleanor, Terry, Tony and family. I never saw Mr. Gerald without his trademark smile. I pray God's comfort for you as found in 2 Corinthians 1:3-4. I pray His mercy and purest grace over you all as you face certain difficult days ahead. But most of all, I pray that family and friends will rally around you to support you with each need. God bless you. He will be missed. Smile on Mr. Gerald.

“ STUART AND I have been Gerald and Eleanor neighbors for 40 years. He was there to greet us when we moved from Gainesville,FL to Graceville. He has always been more like family than a neighbor. God just knows where to place each of us to work in his plan. We have loved, laughed and cried with this neighbor. Thank u Lord for sharing this angel with us for so many years. Now we will carry on with Eleanor and always remember this quiet, soft-spoken man who had so much integrity. We love you Gerald.
