“ I just want to say Carol was one of my closest friends and we shared lots of stories and laughter together down thru the years. Im so blessed to have had her as a very dear friend of mine. We made some great memories together and I will cherish them forever. Carol was a great lady that loved the Lord and was dedicated to her family. She was a real warrior and fought a real tough battle with her illness for several years on up till the day the Lord called another angel home. I love you Sister beyond words and you will always have a place in my heart - n - soul. Till we meet again R.I.P. My Dear Friend & Fly High.
