“ Well lil man...I watched you suffer for many years and although the pain of no longer having you here in my arms is the worst thing I have ever had to go through, I know you are no longer suffering, and you are able to walk, run, talk, play, and express the sweet spirit you have always had. You will always be my baby boy and I will be talking with you daily. Tell our family and friends already there Hi for me and we will be together again one day Johnnie. I love you son and although I have a forever void in my heart and life now, I know you are watching over me. I love you!!!!!!

“ Thinking of little Johnnie tonight as I have been since his passing. As I look at pics of him smiling and looking so happy, I can only imagine how big his smile is right now as he runs and plays with the other little children in heaven. I have asked my mom to give him a big kiss and hug for me. You will never be forgotten Little Man. You are in the hearts of many.

*Love you!
