“ My sister, Margaret and I are Lamar's first cousins. Every summer we went to Aunt Estelles with our parents. Lamar and Russell called us the 'City kids' as youngsters, Lamar and Russell wanted to play cowboy and Indians. Margaret and I always had to be Indians. One time Lamar tied us up to a big tree in the front yard but Uncle Doc called the boys to the barn to help him. Lamar left us tied and we couldn't get of the ropes. We had to yell for Aunt Estelle to come out and untie us. Lamar was great for 'getting' us as he called it my sister and I have many great memories with Lamar we Loved him so much
