“ There are so many great memories with Mama Shiver.....all the camping trips, the gambling trips to Biloxi, the festivals and all the great Thanksgiving dinners sitting at her table and enjoying the feast she had prepared. What a fabulous cook she was! She was such a giving soul and so much fun to be around. We are so grateful she allowed us to be part of her family and we loved her like our own mother. Our lives are so much richer for her influence and love and we will miss her every day.
