“ Nana, we still miss you with each passing day. Our love for you is endless. Well it's been 5 years since your passing. Me and Richie are about to turn the big 50. He says I'm getting old. Gavin and him have a business together that is growing. He is about to move onto some property that we bought and put a home there. Haley is working hard and back at school. She tells me all the time she wishes that you you were hear so she could just talk. She is so beautiful. And has a heart of gold. Troy is going to be in the 5th grade in a few months. He is about to turn 10!! Double digits! He's so much like Richie and he has the funniest memories of you. We love to hear him tell how you would chase him when he was in trouble. He's still loving baseball. He played his first season of basketball and loved it! Morgan and Justin are expecting another baby on your birthday!! We are so excited. Evie is almost 2 and growing so fast. She loves animals, makeup, food and her parents. Morgan misses you a lot too! And her mama. Richie and Bryan are still heartbroken and wish you were healthy and here with us all. I lost Daddy two years ago. I miss him dearly. Cindy's husband and Morgan's daddy both passed a year ago two weeks apart both from massive heart attacks. Our family has lost so much since your passing. Nana I do my best to be there for all of the kids, Richie, Bryan and the rest of the family but I'm not enough. You were our matriarch! Our guiding light in darkness. I try my best to make our family whole but it's so hard without you. You were my second mama and my best friend. I will forever love you!

“ Dearest Nana, I wish that you were here to see the great things that are happening to our family. Gavin completed school; Haley is still attending school; and Troy is about to go to the 4th Grade. Morgan and Justin are so happy and flourishing in Clanton, AL with the most beautiful baby girl. She is so much like Morgan. You would absolutely adore her. She is about to walk. I could only imagine how much she could get into with you, just as the grans did. You could teach her to hide those shopping bags in the trunk of the car like you did Haley and Morgan, LOL. Gavin is still horse crazy as ever. Haley is the most beautiful young lady and they all miss you so much! All of our love, your family!
