

Malinda Burdeshaw Gatzke

May 9, 1965 - August 9, 2024

Malinda Burdeshaw Gatzke, 59, of Rapid City, South Dakota formerly of Noma, Florida, passed away at her family home in Noma following a long illness.

Malinda was born in Chattahoochee, Florida on May 9, 1965, to the late Joseph Durwood Burdeshaw and Mary Ann Worthy Burdeshaw. In her younger years the family moved to Holmes County where she attended Poplar Springs High School and WHVTC where she received her CNA. From the beginning of her younger years, she enjoyed game rooms and roller skating. As she became an adult and being able to travel, she loved the beach, the mountains, enjoying hiking, fishing and camping, all things outdoors. Most of all her favorite amongst them all was spending time with her children and grandchildren. Malinda's favorite place to eat was the Golden Corral, she called it the "hog trough".

Preceded in death by her parents, brothers Michael Ead's, Rob Eads.
