“ I knew and worked with Deloris at the Army Research Institute (ARI) at Fort Rucker. She was one of the most efficient admin persons I have ever known, who helped keep our research unit organized and running smoothly. She was a friendly genuine person, concerned about others and always willing to help. Her coworkers at ARI will always remember Deloris and will miss her.

“ I worked with Deloris Elmore at Fort Rucker for 12 years. Her professional ethics were always sterling. Nobody was more conscientious, dependable, cooperative, and knowledgeable. Deloris had earned a long, satisfying retirement. Fate, however, had other plans for her. So sad. Deloris, I hope you are now with your Lord in a better place.
