“ I had the pleasure of meeting Mary through her incredible brother George Taylor. I was told of her medical condition which saddened me as these conditions are very difficult to endure for her and as her family and friends supported her. I was pleased to know that she was not alone while passing peaceably into Gods arms. Of all the distractions of this world she made the most important decision of her life and sealed her decision with repentance, which sealed her love and dedication towards our Lord and Saviour by turning away from things that displeased our Lord. May God greatly take care of her eternal soul and bless her loving and faithful family with all who loved and supported her. Mary May you rest in peace and we'll catch up when we get there ourselves AMEN!
