

Myrtle B. Steverson

July 30, 1932 - November 14, 2024

Mrs. Myrtle B. Steverson, 92, of Bonifay entered her Eternal Home on Thursday, November 14, 2024, at her earthly residence surrounded by her beloved children. Mrs. Myrtle was born in Bonifay, Florida, on July 30, 1932, to the late Perry and Canzada Kirkland Worley.

A 92-year life well lived, she came to know the Lord at the age of seventeen. She began praying for her father who soon was saved, and they were baptized together. She loved her family. Her main concern was the salvation of her children. Many others attest that her wisdom and guidance were instrumental in their making a decision for the Lord. She had a good sense of humor and liked playing tricks on folks but always in good fun. She was compassionate and testified that the Lord had placed her in positions many times where she was able to minister to others. She loved her community and prayed daily for the needs of others.

She and husband C.W. were truly a pastoral team and grew to love the church families where they served for over 20 years. Mrs. Myrtle set a good example of the greatest commandments “to love the Lord and to love your neighbor” and also Christ’s last commandment before ascending to Heaven, “to love as He loved us.”

Preceded in death by her parents, husband Rev. Charles William “C.W.”

Steverson Jr., daughter Patricia Steverson, grandson Brian Taylor, seven siblings Howard Worley, Roberta Street, Arvinia Lewis, Broward Worley, Arthur Worley, Alto Worley, and Adolph Worley.

She is survived by five children Debbie Taylor (Don), Charles L. "Buddy" Steverson (Pam), Ellen Faircloth (Jackie), William Steverson (Rhonda), Perry Steverson (Susan), thirteen grandchildren, twenty-five great grandchildren, two great great grandchildren, a host of nieces and nephews.

A Home-going Celebration will be held, 2 p.m., Monday, November 18, 2024, at East Mt. Zion Methodist Church with Revs. Roger Whitaker, James Perry Lewis and Byron Faircloth. Burial will follow in church cemetery with James & Lipford Funeral Home directing.

Family will receive friends at East Mt. Zion Methodist Church, Sunday, 2 p.m. until 4 p.m.

“ I would first send my love and prayers to the family and say that Myrtle had the most influence than anybody else in my life. Her love of Jesus Christ and her love for people and sharing the good news of the gospel that brings life to all who find it. She never met any strangers and had the gift of holy spirit that made it easy for her to share the gospel with anyone...she will be truly missed by all that knew her and loved her. We love the family as well

“ I have many but the one that means the most is how easy it was for her to tell others about the saving grace of Jesus Christ. To her it was as easy as taking a breath or batting an eye. She will truly be missed. A wonderful human being ❤️
