“ Phil was such a NICE guy! He was a leader and kind to all! I always loved his smile! Our class of 68 was a close knit class. One memory that stands out in my mind was when Phil and Eugene tried to convince me that clouds would get stuck in the barns and rain on the cows. I was very gullible and they liked to tease! I'll never forget that sweet smirk and his pleasant personality! I never saw an angry look! Everyone loved Phil! RIP my friend!

“ Phil was a great friend and teammate. I remember on night we played football at Newton AI. The field was very sparse with grass and very rough. Phil was catching a ball and was tackled and his helmet spit and made a nice gash in his head. It bleed a lot and he had a scar there forever. He was a real trooper. Going to miss you man. But I know where you are and will visit with you one day.

“ We, in our class, were like 41 siblings who REALLY GOT ALONG (for the most part)! We grew up, age 5-18 together. Our leaders came forward as we grew, and we stood (or sat) and listened. Phil ROSE TO THE TOP in our high school years, and AWESOMELY, stayed 'home' in Graceville, to help keep our anchor and invest in forwarding our little town. We will SO MISS this brother! His girls are a Wonderful Legacy!

Bless you all!

“ To the Register Family,
It was my special honor for you to share your grandson with me. Phil & the entire family accepted us and made us feel welcome. One memory I have of Phil was Corey's 4th birthday, when someone decided to get him 3 goats. Phil had to help chase those goats from the woods, around the house, and finally, to the birthday boy. It was fun to watch.

So many times, we leave our loved ones , not knowing when we'll see them again. But we know we will see them again. That's what this is, a time of not seeing each other but knowing we will see Phil again when God calls us home too. See you later, Phil.
