

Rhonda Abel

December 31, 1955 - October 15, 2019

Rhonda Sue Abel, 63 of Noma, Florida, passed away on October 15, 2019 in Dothan, Alabama following a brief illness. Rhonda was born on December 31, 1955 in Donalsonville, Georgia to the late Billy Joe Kirkland and Irene Cowart Kirkland.

Rhonda was a graduate of the Police Academy and served over 20 years with the Vero Beach Police Department. She was a Master Gardener and her passion was butterflies and butterfly plants. She enjoyed gardening, putting up fresh vegetables, filling her freezers and canning, especially jellies.

She is survived by one daughter Heather Petitpas, one son William "Bill" Towns, four grandchildren Chelsea, Madison, Megan, Cooper; two sisters Cathy Cordeiro, Pam Middleton; and beloved fur-baby Munchkin.

In lieu of flowers, please thank a random police officer for their brave service. Rhonda's request was memorialization by cremation.

“ Rhonda was a wonderful woman. I was a neighbor for a little while in Vero Beach and was also her babysitter for her granddaughter. Lost contact for many years but was happy to make contact and chat with her briefly just under a year ago. She will be missed and my prayers go out to her children and grand children for Peace.
