“ I never saw Ronnie without a smile on his face! I enjoyed watching him with his grandchildren. He did a great job of sharing that Papa love! We feel honored to have been "part" of this family through my brother's marriage to Tracey! I guess the 30 years and mutual family gatherings really had an impact as I feel this family's loss. I will miss Ronnie too. He was kind, loving, and very hospitable! I always feel welcome in the Bush home, Fefe.

I hope that all the wonderful memories you have of Ronnie will bring you comfort during this time. Know that our thoughts and prayers are with you! We love you!

“ Ronnie & FeFe were always so friendly and welcoming to everyone. Gather around the table or sit on the porch with a cup of coffee just enjoying each other's company. You would always feel there love and understanding in whatever you felt like talking about. He was the very definition of what family is supposed to be. I will miss being able to call or text him to find out how everyone is doing today?? and hearing his soft gentle voice on the other end. Family know that we are all praying for you and we love you.
