“ If you knew Shirley, you knew her boys came first. Nobody took better care of her family than she did. She was a great cheerleader, umpire, and a wonderful cook.

James Roy was waiting for her and he had her folding chair ready.

I'm sorry I can't be there, Jamie and Tim.

“ The very first time I ate a taco was at Shirley's, she couldn't fry the taco shells quick enough, it opened up a life long love of Mexican food. I remember Uncle James Roy looking at us and probably wondering if he would get any!
