

Wanda Lou McDonald

September 27, 1937 - October 7, 2014

Wanda Lou Payne McDonald, 77, passed away, Tuesday, October 7, 2014, at Flowers Hospital in Dothan, Alabama. Funeral service will be 5 p.m., Thursday, October 9, 2014, at First Baptist Church in Graceville with Dr. Robin Jumper officiating. Burial will be 9 a.m., Friday, October 10, 2014, at Marvin Chapel Cemetery with James & Lipford Funeral Home directing. Family will receive friends at the church Thursday, 3 p.m. until time of service. Flowers will be accepted or memorial gifts may be made to The Baptist College of Florida Student Scholarship Fund, 5400 College Drive, Graceville, FL 32440. Ms. Wanda was born in Saltillo, Texas, on September 27, 1937, to the late Trooper and Bennie Mae Hughes Payne. A graduate of Lumberton High School and Draughon's Business College, Ms. Wanda was a bookkeeper for many years with Mississippi Power Company. She was a member of First Baptist Church in Lumberton, Mississippi, where she served as church organist. She was later a member of Trinity Baptist Church in Lumberton, Mississippi. Preceded in death by her parents, husband Hal McDonald, brother Lee Carroll, and sister Marilyn. Survived by her beloved daughter and son-in-law, Terry and Robin Jumper; grandson Mark Jumper, granddaughter Kara Jumper Walters and husband Justin. She is also survived by beloved special friends: Barry Waits family, Mason Smith family, and Ken Ferrell family of Mississippi.